

The Feilding and District Art Society Incorp.

Code of Conduct

*We invite you to join together in creating an Art Society that values kindness, honesty, supporting one another, sharing and encouragement.
 A community where we celebrate one another's successes and contribute positively to each other in varying ways through volunteering, mentoring, teaching, supporting and sharing.
 To create this, each member needs to actively use the "connecting habits" below;*

| Connecting Habits that create Positive Relationships and Uplift | Disconnecting Habits that Divide and Deflate |
|--|---|
| Listening Encouraging Respecting Supporting Valuing differences Talking in a positive way Can amicably agree to disagree Inclusive Sharing ideas, helping one another Celebrate others successes Asking questions  | Talking over someone Complaining Threatening Blaming Nagging Uninvited critiquing of art work Criticising Gossiping (listening or repeating) Forcing ideas onto others Judging Jumping to conclusions Competitiveness  |

Ask yourself "If I say or do this right now, will it bring us closer together or will we end up further apart?"

(adapted from John Archibald, 2010)

Any complaints to be directed to the Committee in writing. Meetings are held every second Monday of the month.
